A Kingdom United

UK ANDVENTURE! We will visit, explore and partake in activities for each country in the UK. We will do some Irish dancing, learn the British National Anthem, listen to some bagpipe music, eat and cook some native dishes and learn to speak some Welsh words. We will then have an English afternoon tea party where children can dress for the occasion and invite their family along join in the fun!

EXPERIENCE

We will:

- have a Scottish bagpiper visit us so that we can listen to some Scottish music.
- visit Blenheim Place and experience how the Royal Family live.

CREATE

Parents will be invited to our 'Royal Art Gallery' where they can view our portraits and celebrate our successes. We will then become Royals for the afternoon and have a go at creating our own Royal Family Trees and see who is The Queen, The King, The Princess or Prince in your family!

COMMUNITY

We will show respect and kindness to people we meet from our country and other countries. We will understand that equality is important even though people may have different beliefs and morals. We will show pride when talking about our country.

OUR DRIVERS

POSSIBILITIES

We will show courage and try new things from other countries that will help us grow as learners. We will be creative and consider different ways to present our work.

MINDFULNESS &amp; GROWTH

We will be determined and resilient when we find things difficult and not give up. We will reflect on our learning after each lesson and seek help when needed. We will invite in parents and celebrate our success and achievements.

INITIATIVE

We will be inquisitive and curious by asking questions and sharing ideas so that we are active in our own learning.

We will show enthusiastic when completing our work and engage in all activities.

SMSC and British Values

- We will understand and respect the cultures of others living in different countries.
- We will have the right to voice our own opinions and listen to the opinions of others.
- We will have the right to choose our own ideas and the ways we want to express them.
